

Turning a Corner is an hour-long documentary that exposes the overlooked truths of Chicago's sex trade industry and the moving stories behind those truths.

This groundbreaking film, produced by Salome Chasnoff and Beyondmedia Education with thirteen members of Prostitution Alternatives Round Table (PART), recounts their survival and triumph over homelessness, violence, and discrimination.

This FREE event is hosted by Bernardine Dohrn with panel moderator Olivia Howard. Complimentary snacks and cash bar available. $7.00 parking validated at the event is available for Lot C (Huron/Fairbanks) and Lot D (Erie/Fairbanks).

FREE CHICAGO PREMIERE
February 6, 2006
5:30-8pm

5:30-6:15pm Reception
6:15-7:30pm Film Screening
7:30-8:00pm Panel Discussion

Northwestern University
Thorne Auditorium
375 E. Chicago Ave., Chicago

SPONSORED BY:

Prostitution Alternatives Round Table
(PART) of the CHICAGO COALITION
FOR THE HOMELESS

BEYONDMEDIA EDUCATION

Children and Family Justice Center of
NORTHWESTERN UNIVERSITY
SCHOOL OF LAW

FOR MORE INFO & RSVP:

Chicago Coalition for the Homeless
(chicagohomeless.org) 312-435-4548 or
Beyondmedia (beyondmedia.org) 773-
973-2280

This project is generously funded by the Nathan Cummings Foundation with the support and encouragement of Rachel Durchslag. This event is generously sponsored by Chicago Foundation for Women.